

Dear Client,

We inform you that access to the 112 emergency service is available to every customer who benefits from the voice service provided by GTS.

By calling the emergency number 112, our system automatically sends your contractually declared location at the time of purchasing the service, thus facilitating the quick and efficient intervention of emergency services.